

Name _____

Teacher: B E J K P

Chapter 12: Southern Neighbors

- There are _____ countries in South America.
- _____ is the largest country.
- _____ is the second largest country in South America.
- Most of South America used to be colonies of _____ and _____.
- S _____ and P _____ are the two most common languages in South America.
- The A _____ R _____ and the A _____ M _____ are the two best known features of South America.
- The Amazon is the _____ in the world and runs for nearly _____ miles.
- The Amazon River runs from northern _____ to the coast of _____.
- The Amazon River is surrounded by _____, which contains some of the earth's most crowded plant and animal life.
- One-fifth of the _____ on earth is produced by the Amazon Rainforest.
- Dangerous animals such as j _____, c _____, and p _____ live in the Amazon. There are also sc _____ and sp _____.
- L _____ T _____ is located in South America on the border between P _____ and B _____. It is one of the highest _____ in the world.
- The large mountain range that is located in South America is the A _____ M _____, which runs from the northern part of the continent to its southern tip.