

Name _____

Teacher: B E J K P

Chapter 13: Small Only in Size

- Europe is the _____ smallest continent.
- Europe is bordered to the west by the _____; to the north by the _____; to the south by the _____.
- The eastern boundary of Europe is made up of _____ and _____ inside _____.
- _____ is such a large country that its western part is in _____ and its eastern part is in _____. It is the biggest country on both continents.
- _____ is the largest island of the U.K., which stands for the United Kingdom.
- The largest part of Great Britain is _____.
- American culture has been influenced by _____. It affects everything from what we _____ to how we _____ to how our _____ is organized.
- Three other important countries in England are _____, _____, and _____.
- The suffix "ville" means _____.
- The U.S. was part of two wars that started in Europe. The first was _____ and the second was _____.
- In both of these wars, the United States was the ally of _____, _____, and _____.
- In both of the above wars, we were an enemy of _____.
- Two of the best known cities in Europe are _____ and _____.

- The weather and terrain in most of Europe is _____ to that of Tennessee.
- Europe has a huge mountain range called the _____ that are much _____ than the ones in Tennessee.

Use the glossary to write the definitions of the following words.

- descend: _____
- immigrate: _____
- ally: _____