

Name _____

Teacher _____

Around the World Chapter 4 Study Guide: Pinpointing on a Globe & Time Zones

1. The northernmost place on earth is the _____.
2. The southernmost place on earth is the _____.
3. The _____ is an imaginary line that runs around the widest part of the earth, halfway between the North and South Poles.
4. The _____ is an imaginary vertical line that crosses the equator at a right angle and goes through the North and South Poles.
5. A _____ is half a sphere.
6. The _____ hemisphere is located above the equator and the _____ hemisphere is located below the equator.
7. West of the Prime Meridian is the _____ hemisphere and to the east is the _____ hemisphere.
8. Lines of _____ run east and west like a ladder and measure _____ and _____.
9. Lines of _____ run north and south and measure _____ and _____.
10. The world is divided into 24 different _____.

11. There are 4 time zones that cover the continental United States: _____,
_____.

12. East Tennessee is in the _____ time zone. The rest of Tennessee is in the _____ time zone.

13. If it is 10:00 in the Eastern time zone, it is _____ in the Central time zone, _____ in the Mountain time zone, and _____ in the Pacific time zone.

